- ▶ Principals
- ▶ Head of School

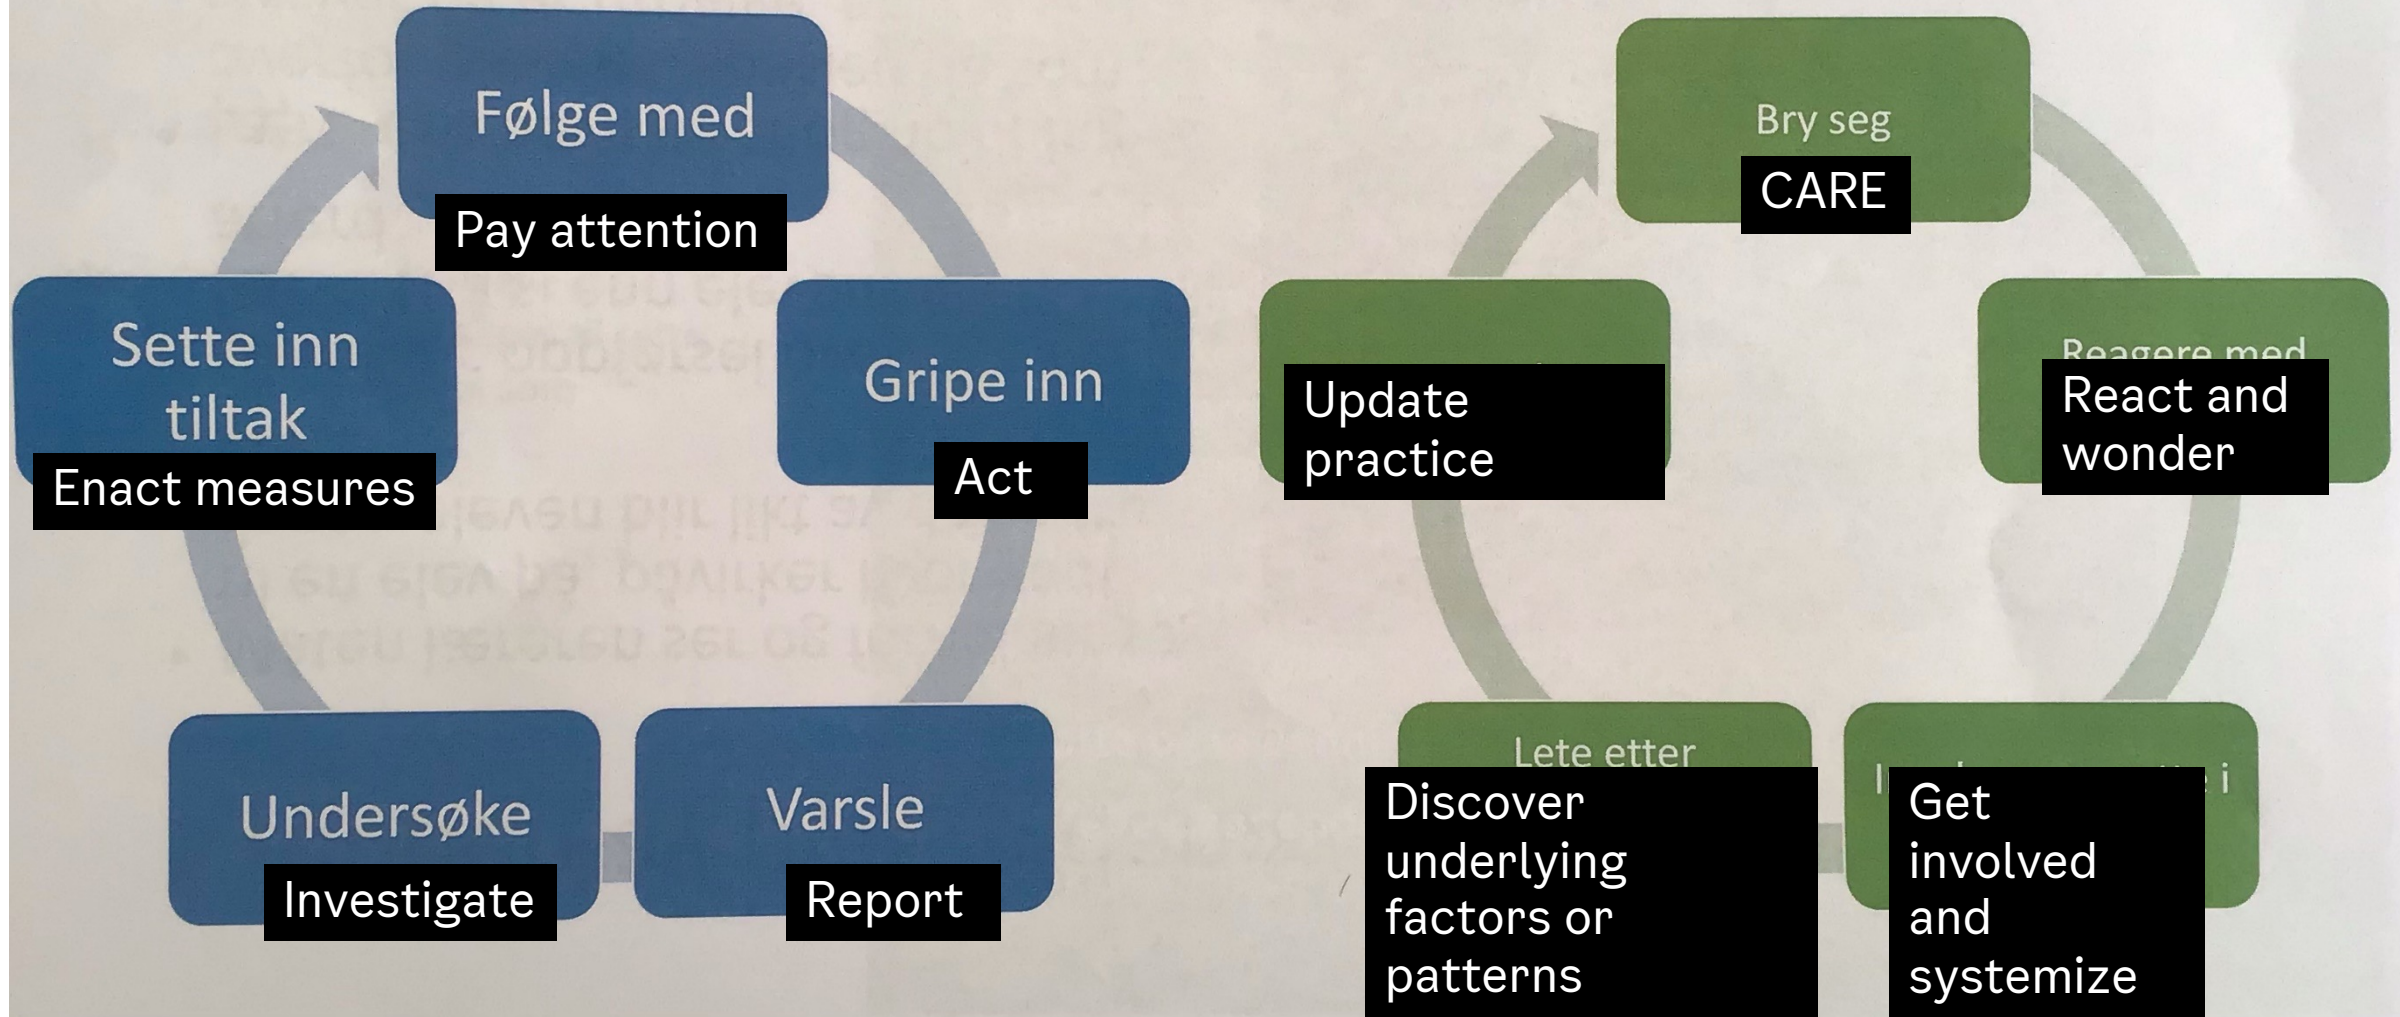

Suspicion or knowledge that a student does not have a positive learning environment

All viewpoints are valid: student's perspective, parent's perspective, school's perspective

All staff have a responsibility to act

Aktivitetsplikten §9a-4

What is educational Act §9A-4?

- ▶ A focus on the school's prevention, planning and routines rather than individual logs
- ▶ From individual focus to context and learning environments
- ▶ Documentation: Social year level plans, incident reports, student conversation and activity plans
- ▶ Students have the right to: School has plans, routines and competency to act in place
- ▶ We cannot guarantee that a student is always happy at our school
- ▶ We can guarantee that we will act when we suspect or know of a student whose well-being is in jeopardy

Leave (permisjon) – Why is it stricter?

- ▶ It is not usual to give leave for vacation, training or other activities, or when the student has undocumented leave
- ▶ Leave that students have the right to:
 - Members of religious groups outside of the Norwegian church have the right to specific religious holidays (in example Eid).
- ▶ We can permit leave for
 - Special arrangements or events (political work, organization work, family events)
 - Sports or cultural events on professional levels

Understanding for exceptions to the rules

- ▶ Your responsibility as a parent
 - Follow up on homework and information home
 - Undocumented absences on diploma- Is it worth it? Your decision.
- ▶ Our hope and goal: All students should be at school 190 out of 365 days
 - They are an important part of our community and we learn together!

FREE PRINCIPLE- GRATISPRINSIPPET AND DUGNAD

- ▶ What is the line between the free principle and dugnad?
- ▶ Waiting on an answer–know that they will be stricter
- ▶ What do we do at Manglerud?
 - Dugnad continues
 - White buses/ Hvite busser– grand and expensive project– presents a challenges
 - Year 9 and 10 go on trips as planned
 - Year 8 does NOT start to plan until we have heard back (ETA September)
